Crimmins Gets Aurumaster, 20 to 1, Up. in Time to Win by a Head-Keene's Wild Mfnt Takes the Dash Stakes -Councilman Is Ruled Out of Place.

Through the overconfidence of Jockey Lucien Lyne, Sydney Paget's Ormonde's Right. a prohibitive favorite, after leading from start to within a few yards of the finish, was beaten a lead on the post by H. J. Mor-ris's Aurumaster, in the Reapers Stakes, for three-year-olds, at one mile and three-six-teenths, at Sheepshead Bay yesterday afternoon. There were only three starters, Or-monde's Right, closing at 7 to 20, with 3 to 1 against Ed Tierney and 20 to 1 against Auru-master. Ormondo's Right set a good steady pace, with Ed Tierney leading Aurumaster in the run up the backstretch. It was on the far turn that Aurumaster ran over the second horse, and, with little Crimmins riding him with whip and spurs, the Octagon gelding challenged Ormonde's Right as they straightened out at the top of the stretch. As Lyne drew away easily he looked back and then went on, keeping the Paget colt under a firm But Crimmins kept his whip busy, and at the last sixteenth pole Aurumaster had gotten up on even terms with the favorite. Lyne thought that he could draw a fine finish, t the Paget colt could not gain a foot. Then Lyne went to the whip when he had fifty yards to go. As he did so Aurumaster, still under severe punishment, bore in a trifle on the favorite, at the same time getting his head in front. As they passed the judges both boys were laying the punishment on thick. There were hoots and hisses for Lyne from those that rushed down to the judges' stand. It was a demonstration that made the jockey's face turn a bright crimson. The race was run in 2:00.

The Dash Stakes, for two-year-olds, five furlongs. Futurity course, bristled with incidents of an exciting nature. H. B. Duryea's Dreamer, a 7 to 10 favorite, while at the post ran away a quarter of a mile before Hilde-brand could check him. Then in the race, after leading to the bend in the track he began to stop. As he was fighting it out at the last sixteenth pole with James R. Keene's Wild Mint, 8 to 1, John E. Madden's Councilman, 6 to 1, rushed up on the outside and clearly interfered with Dreamer. Wild Mint won in a drive by half a length in 1:00, with Councilman beating Dreamer a length and a half, and the Western filly, Handzarra, 6 to 1, four lengths away. Dreamer was practically broken down when Hildebrand pulled him up on the lower turn, so that the jockey had an unusually long walk to the stewards stand, where he made a protest of foul against Councilman. The protest was allowed, Councilman being disqualified, and Dreamer received the place, with third money for Hand-

Sydney Paget's Zeala and My Buela, coupled favorites, who were backed down to 3 to 5, ran first and second, respectively, in the opening event, for maiden two-year-old fillies, at e furlongs. Bill Daly's Raiment, 20 to 1, was third, beating Princess Eris a head. The

After riding Zeala, Lyne repeated in the second event for all ages, at six furlongs, when he won with T. C. McDowell's Alan-a-Dale, odds on favorite, who had a length and a half to spare at the wire. Flying Ship, 6 to 1, made up enough ground in the stretch to beat Tramotor, the Indio two-year-old, 20 to 1, by half a length. The latter had a lead of four lengths as he got around the turn, but the pace was too much . At that, he finished three lengths before John A. Drake's Ocean Tide. The time was 1:13 2-5.

The Hempstead Cup Steeplechase was howling farce. There were five starters, and all of them fell with the exception of bretto, 7 to 1, who, of course, won, Horizontal, 25 to 1, who fell at the jump opposite the clubhouse, was remounted and got second money several minutes after the winner had Daffo-Down-Dilly, second choice, would have won easily if he had not fallen at the last jump. The accident was partly due to the riderless Bonfire, 6 to 5 fa vorite, who went over the course and actually came home in front of Libretto. Daffo-Down-Dilly was caught by a stable boy near the paddock and was ridden back to the spo where he fell. There Donohue climbed back where he fell. There Donohue climbed back into the saddle and ran home for third money. The time was 5:25 2-5.

Crimmins put up a splendid ride on Eagle, backed down to sevens, in the last race, and won by two lengths from The Lady Rohesia, played down to 4 to 1. Prince Ching, 4 to 1, was third, a head in front of Joe Yeager's Trascible, 25 to 1. There was a heavy plunge on Tantalus Cup, the odds dropping from 6 to 1 to 18 to 5, but the horse was incompetently ridden by Cochran and never had a look in. The time was 1:48. Four favorites went down to defeat, Lyne and Crimmins dividing the saddle honors with two winners each. The track was lightning fast and the crowd up to the average. crowd up to the average. RIFLEMEN BEGIN MATCHES. Lieut. W. W. Cookson, District of Columbia Wins Inspectors' Match.

SEA GIRT, N. J., Sept. 1.-The thirty-second annual tournament of the National Rifle Association and the thirteenth of the New Jersey Rifle Association opened to-day under almost perfect wind and light conditions.

The Ninety-Afth Coast Artillery from Fort Hancock and fifty college students are acting as markers and scorers. The camp has been shifted from the clubhouse green over back of the 1,000-yard firing line; there is a new pit at 1,000 yards: the revolver range is improved and the clubhouse enlarged. To the District of Columbia, represented by Lieut, W. W. Cookson, went victory in the first of the thirty-seven matches on the programme, ten of which are under the auspices first of the thirty-seven matches on the programme, ten of which are under the auspices of the national association. This match is for inspectors and ex-inspectors of rifle practice, ten shots at 500 and 600 yards with any military rifle and any ammunition. The first prize is the Department of Rifle Practice badge and $50. The match was won last year by Capt. G. H. Springsted of the Fourth New Jersey.

To-day's contest was as close and as exciting as was ever seen in this match. In the first stage Lieut. W. H. Richards of Ohio, winner of the Wimbledon cup team a year ago, and Lieut. W. Dev. Foulke of Pennsylvania tied at 49, but on the second stage they both fell to 44. Cookson made 97 by steady marksmanship on both ranges.

The feature of the match was the contest for second place by Capt. W. B. Martin of the Second New Jersey and Capt. C. B. Winder of Ohio, who had tied at 500 yards at 40. They tied again at 600 yards, but Winder's nerve held on better at the very last. His final shot was a bull, while Martin slipped to a 4. Lieut. K. K. Y. Casey of the Seventy-first led for New York, also scoring 94. His 47 at 600 yards dropped him to fourth place. The full score in the inspectors' match follows:

Lieut. W. W. Cookson, D. C. Capt. C. B. Winder, Ohlo. Capt. W. B. Martin, Second N. J. Lieut. K. K. V. Casey, Seventy-first N. Y. Casey, Seventy and A. Capt. A. H. Graff, Second N. J. 47. Lieut. W. Benjamin South, First Ohio. 45. Capt. Frank Barr. Eighth Ohio. 45. Lieut. R. H. Sayre, Squadron A. N. Y. 39.

The other special matches on to-day were the Seabury long distance military, ten shots the Seabury long distance minitary, ten snots at 800, 900 and 1,000 yards, for the cash prizes offered by G. J. Seabury of New York, and the Spencer match for the badge donated by Gen. Bird W. Spencer, Inspector-General of Rifle Practice for New Jersey. These will end next Tuesday.

GOLF.

Players Gathering at Baltusrol-Low Wins From Flood.

About fifty players were out for practice rounds yesterday at the Baltusrol links, but nothing in the line of record scoring developed. A four ball match of special interest, although not one of the quartet beat 80, brought out a fight to the twenty-first hole. It was between A. W. Tillinghast of Philadelphia and George A. Ormiston of Pittsburg, against Dr. D. P. Fredericks of Oil City and Percy Pyne, 2d, of Morris County. The best ball cards were 78, and this made the pairs even at the home green. Three extra noies were played, when Tillinghast and Ormiston were played, when Tillinghast and Ormiston won out by 1 up.

Others who made good rounds were B. P. McKinnie of St. Louis, H. J. Gee of Princeton, Howard Griffen and the Morris County trio, Max Behr, who did 79, H. H. Swords and F. H. Thomas, The course is the same as when used for the open championship, 6,103 yards, except for the stiffening up of the old and the placing of the new hazards. The most important change is on the fifteenth hole, where the triple bunker on the nill to guard the green has been razed and a wider bunker put in nearer to the tee, so that a good second shot will new make the green. It is still in doubt whether the new tenth hole will be used or not. The change is gaining friends, and if made it will stretch out the tenth and eleventh holes considerably. The decision will probably not be made until Monday.

George Low, the Baltusrol professional, who established the record of 78 at Deal last week, proved that he was on his game again at the Manhanset Manor Country Club on Wednesday, when he equalled Val Flood's new record of 77 and won the thirty-six hole match with Flood by 3 up and 2 to play. Flood had some hard luck in putting, but the most of the country was a very good exhibition. match throughout was a very good exhibition on the part of both professionals.

on the grass, is the only stake feature to be decided at Sheepshead Bay this afternoon. Gunfire, with 122 pounds, on the strength of days. In explanation of the flagrant fouling, will probably rule a strong favorite over Hurst Park, Gold Money and Carbuncle.

The fourth race, for all ages, at a mile, will probably bring Molly Brant, John Sanford's crack mare, and Broomstick, the Ben Brush three-year-old, together in a smashing struggle, with Hurstbourne and the two-year-old Siglight the outsiders in the speculation. In the third event, a handicap for three-year-olds and upward, at a mile and an eighth, High Chancellor, Grey Friar and Dekaber look to be the best. In the two-year-old handicap, at five and a half furlongs, the Western colt Oiseau has top weight. Tongorder and Zeala will carry the Paget colors and are dangerous, while Gamara and Gilpin have chances to be in the money.

H. B. Duryea's Bulwark may be successful in the first race, for maiden two-year-olds, with Linda Lee, Ismailian and Salt and Pepper all figuring well. Kickshaw, Geranium, Canajoharie aland Counterpoise look formidable in the second race, at six and a half furlongs on the main track. The entries are as follows:

GOSSIP OF THE RACETRACK.

A DAY OF TRIUMPH FOR LITTLE JOCKEY CRIMMINS.

Product of the Gas House District Rides Aurumaster and Eagle to Victory in Fine Form-Sydney Paget Orders Lyne to Protest When It Is Too Late.

Jockey Crimmins enjoyed the most suctional day of his short career on the turf esterday afternoon. He rode two winners Aurumaster and Eagle, and was lionized by the crowd that surrounded the scales in each instance. Crimmins, who is known only by the nickname "Mickey," is a local product. He hails from the famous Gas House district and is one of the smallest boys riding on the metropolitan tracks. Archie Zimmer, who trains for "Big Tim" Sullivan and who has Grover Cleveland Fuller under his wing, signed Crimmins to a contract last fall and took him to New Orleans, where the midget rapidly developed. Several months ago the ockey met "Big Tim" in the paddock and exclaimed with much warmth: "Say, Tim, if you stick to me you'll get the money! How can I lose when I come from the Gas House district, where Charley Murphy is the goods?" These remarks were characteristic of the boy, who has supreme confidence in his own ability and firmly believes that some day he will be the greatest rider in America. Crimmins's finish on Aurumaster was a masterly performance. He made the more experienced Lyne look like a novice. With wonderful strength, he fairly lifted Aurumaster over the line, using his whip with elling effect. Again, with Eagle, Crimmins showed that he possessed cool judgment, for he never made a move until the proper time arrived, and then won with something to spare. After the race, the little fellow

"I guess I was bad, eh?" said he. "I'm just getting into my stride, so it'll be wel to follow my trail." Sydney Paget was clearly agitated when Ormonde's Right was beaten in the Reapers Stakes. Lyne had left the scales, and was walking along the edge of the track toward the paddock gate when Mr. Paget leaned over the rail and said to him; "That was the worst foul I eyer saw on racetrack. Go back to the stewards!" "There was only a little crowding," replied Lyne, "not enough to warrant a protest!"

"Go back to the stewards, I say!" commanded Mr. Paget, so Lyne went toward the Before he could get there, however, stand. the red board had been adjusted and the stewards were descending from their observation place. Then Mr. Paget met H. B. Duryea. one of the stewards, and talked with him in an animated way during the walk to the paddock. Lyne did not handle Ormonde's Right with the skill he displayed when the colt ran second to Beldame in the Dolphin Stakes on Tuesday. His work was a slovenly piece of business, to say the least.

Dave Johnson went to the track yesterday confident that he could clean the card with six straight winners. He began operating in the first race by wagering $1,000 on Zeala with Bill Jackman at 7 to 10. Cashing this bet he parlayed the $1,700 onto Alan-a-Dale at 2 to 5 in the second race with Bill Cowan After that a $2,380 parlay was placed on Dreamer at 7 to 10, but that was the end of it and Johnson spent the rest of the afternoon looking at the races from the grandstand. Had Dreamer won, the money would hav been burned up by Ormonde's Right, who was the plunger's fourth selection. The others were Bonfire, who fell in the steeplechase, and Tantalus Cup, who was badly ridden in the last event.

The Drake combination plunged on the

Paget entry in the first race, and so did Yeager From these speculators alone it was said fully $40,000 was sent to the books, the price falling from 6 to 5 to 3 to 5. Zeala is a full sister to Waterboy, being by Watercress— Zealandia. She is powerfully put together and raced down to the wire in much the same style shown by last year's champion of them all. She was bleeding when pulled up. My Buela, her stable companion, who ran second is a filly by Meddler-Buela. Fred Burlew's filly Delusion, a Whitney cast off, was a sup-

Arthur Featherstone has not enjoyed much good fortune this year. Julius Bauer, his trainer, bought eighteen two-year-olds East last spring, but all were soon suffering from distemper, from which they are only just now recovering. Bauer will be able to put them in training in a few days, and they will be sent to the post to fill some late engagements at the fall meetings.

A man wearing new "store clothes" and hailing, it is said, from Bridgeport, Conn. walked up to a Pinkerton, near the paddock, just before the first race and said with an unmistakable Yankee twang:

"Where's this here poolroom, friend?" He was directed to the betting ring, where, after his pet corns had been crushed and his hat had been knocked off, he said: "This here game ain't worth the I'm goin' back home!"

If the touts were to be believed, Handzarra, a filly, by Handzel-Elzarra, owned by F. B. Van Meter had the Dash Stakes at her mercy She was said to be a whirlwind and had broken several watches with her phenomenal time trials. That there was some basis for the tip that was in circulation everywhere was shown when several bettors from the West went up and down the line wagering $500 at a clip on the filly, place and show. But the layers took all the money without rubbing. Dreamer's trouble, it was discovered after he had been led into the paddock, was an in-jury to the near foreleg. It was not exactly a breakdown, but the injury will probably keep the Hamburg gelding in the stable for the rest of the season. The Dash Stakes was worth $3,175 to the winner, Wild Mint. The winners since 1887 were Van Leland, Champagne Charley, Reclare, Eclipse, Dashing Belle, Runyon, Henry of Navarre, Brandywine, Crescendo, The Friar, Alice Farley, Ways and Means, Merriment, Bellario, Heno, Invincible and Lady

Amelia. The Reapers paid $3,025 to the winner Aurumaster. This race, too, was run for the first time in 1887, producing these winners: Belvidere, My Own, Buddhist, Ruperta, La Tosca, Kilkenny, Sir Francis, Dorian, Flying Dutchman, Peep o'Day, Imperator, Latson, Kinley Mack, David Garrick, Water-

It was after the race was under way that a man from the clubhouse rushed up to Soi Lichtenstein and wanted to bet $150 on Aurunaster. Lichtenstein took the wager, laying 3,000 to $150, and when the result was announced the bookmaker was so hot under the collar that it wilted. Several other layers were caught with bets from the clubhouse on the same horse, and the question naturally was asked later on:

"What did these wise men know when they et against an apparently sure thing in Ormonde's Right?" Maybe it was pure guesswork or a desire to take a fiver on a long shot.

Long before the last race was run Tan alus Cup was regarded as the best bet of the Some of the smartest bettors at the track had such information in regard to this colt that they passed up the preceding events in order to get down their bank rolls. Drake and Gates sent thousands into the ring, while other big players bet so much money on Tantalus Cup that 3 to 1 was the best odds obtainable when the horses reached the post. Meanwhile Billy Dubois had the genuine rticle in his gelding Eagle, who was played from 12 to 1 down to sevens and landed the noney. The Lady Rohesia also was played heavily across the board by those who are in touch with Fred Burlew.

The steeplechase was one of the hardest knocks the jumping game has received this season. The crowd howled in derision.

Figures at Olympic Games. Sr. Louis, Sept. 1.-The Olympic games were continued to-day at the Stadium, and the competitions in both handicap and championship events were keen and exciting. The crowd was an improvement on the previous days, there being about 3,000 persons presen The track was in splendid condition, and although the heat was intense, the athletes liked it. One world's record and three Olymoic records were shattered. Martin J. Sheridan of the Greater New York

Irish A. A., threw the discus the distance of 132 feet, which establishes a new world's record, supplanting the old figures of 127 feet 8% inches by Sheridan himself two years

132 feet, which establishes a new world's record, supplanting the old figures of 127 feet 8½ inches by Sheridan himself two years ago.

The race of the day was the 800 metre championship. About 150 yards from home Lightbody and Valentine drew out and then began one of the stiffest tussles ever seen on a cinder path in the West. The Chicago man won by a yard from Valentine in the cracking time of 1 minute 56 seconds. These figures eclipse the old Olympic record of 2 minutes 1 2-5 seconds made by the late A. E. Tysoe of the Salford Harriers of England at Paris in 1900. Harry L. Hillman scored his third victory at this meet by winning the 200 metre hurdle race in 24 3-5 seconds figures which beat the old record of 25 2-5 seconds made by A. C. Kraenzlein of the University of Pennsylvania at Paris in 1900.

Meyer Prinstein of the Greater New York Irish A. A. cleared 24 feet 1 inch in the running broad jump and this is 5½ inches better than the Olympic record made by Kraenzlein at Paris. It now looks as if the New York A. C. would win the world's championship team prize. The winged foot club has scored 46 points so far.

MAJ. DELMAR TRIES FOR RECORD. Gelding Fails to Lower World's Figures, but Trots in 2:03.

PROVIDENCE, R. I., Sept. 1.-There was little bordering on the sensational at the local grand circuit meet to-day. One of the feat-ures was the attempt of Major Delmar to would have equalled if not beaten the markagainst which he was sent.

Interest centred in the 2:14 pace, unfinished yesterday. Baron Grattan, Don Carr and Bad News had two heats apiece in this race. Baron Grattan was made the favorite today and justified the confidence placed in him by his backers. Although Don Carr took the pole away from him before the quarter was reached, Baron Grattan was always well up and came in the stretch with a burst of speed that Don Carr could not equal.

On the regular card the 2:24 trot was easy money for Knox's Gelatine King, the converted pacer. Ruth C. was the contender in the first heat, but after that gave way to Brilliant Girl, who took second money.

In the 2:02 pace Hettie G. won as she pleased. Albert had but little difficulty in landing second money

There was a surprise in store for the talent in the 2:10 trot. Norrie was picked to win and was well backed, but John Taylor, a gray gelding, took the event in straight heats.

Nerva Patchen Breaks Track Record at Hobokus.

HOHOKUS. N. J.. Sept. 1.—Gov. Franklin Murphy was the guest of the North Jersey Agricultural and Driving Association at the Undercilif grounds to-day. The crowd was large, track fast and some good horses met in competition. Four met in the free-for-all pace. Nerva Patchen won the first heat in a whipping finish by half a length, then indiana won the next two heats, Olivewood being the contender in each. Indiana equalied the track record in the second heat and broke it in the third. Then Nerva Patchen beat out the favorite and took from him the track record he had just made, placing the mark at 2:11. Nerva Patchen also won the fifth heat and race.

WORLD'S RECORD WITH DISCUS. ONE POINT BEHIND BOSTONS.

M. J. Sheridan Beats His Previous Best NEW YORK AMERICANS BEAT THE DETROITS.

> Keep Up Their Speedy Clip-Bostons Lose in First Game With Clevelands and Win the Second-Browns Whitewash Philadelphias-Chicagos Shut Out

The ball played on the hill for the last two weeks has been the fastest seen here in a good while, and another installment of it yesterday enabled the New York Americans to beat the Detroits. Boston broke even with Cleve-land, and the New Yorks advanced to within one point of the leaders. The Philadelphias were shut out by the St. Louis Browns, and the Chicagos were shut out by the Washington. The results: New York, 4; Detroit, 2.

Cleveland, 4; Boston, 1. First Game. Boston, 5; Cleveland, 1. Second Game. St. Louis, 2: Philadelphia, 0. Washington, 1; Chicago, O.

STANDING OF THE CLUBS. NEW YORK (A. L.), 4; DETROIT, 2.

More baseball that was unbeatable was played by the New York Americans yesterday, and the Detroits were the ones that suffered therefrom. In a game in which the pitching made hitting rather slim the New Yorks hit to better purpose than the Wolverines and were noticeably faster on the bases and made filting rather shift the New Actas and the better purpose than the Wolverines and were noticeably faster on the bases and in fielding. New York's fielding was again of that swift and sure kind that the home team has done so much of lately, and they ran the bases better than the Detroits, because Kleinow threw better than Beville. Kleinow turned two fast Detroit men back; then they gave it up as a bad job. As to Beville it was not so much want of accuracy as slowness in getting the ball away that ailed him.

New York's margin of victory was two runs and New York made two runs by bunting. Dougherty and Keeler laid down successive bunts that upset Bill Coughlin, the Tiger third baseman. Anderson drove in a brace of counts with a three-bagger. Bobby Lowe did some ball breaking for Detroit and his cudgel figured in both of the visitors' runs. Elberfeld fielded finely, while Pat Dougherty had a rather eventful matinée in the left meadow. He had several ugly drives to handle and came out of his vexations with credit.

Keeler singled to centre in the first inning and Elberfeld waited for four balls. Crawford ran in on Anderson's clinking joit to right, but the ball bounded away from him, Andy reaching third and Keeler and Elberfeld scoring. Neither Ganzel nor Williams could unfasten Anderson from third base. The Detroits scored once in the next inning. Hickman met one of Powell's slow ones and transformed it into a three-bagger. Elberfeld got Hickman at the plate after a beautiful play on Beville's awkward bounder, but Dougherty played Lowe's hit badly and, the ball slopping past him, Beville scored.

Dougherty misjudged Hickman's long fly in the fourth inning, but retrieved the mistake of mind by physical dexterity. He threw up his left arm and pulled the ball down with one hand. Dougherty bunted in the fifth inning and Coughlin waited for the ball to roil foul, which it did not do. Keeler also bunted and Coughlin threw so wildly to first that Dougherty reached home and Keeler napping at third allowed Willie to t

Keeler napping at third allowed willie to tally.

Fine catches by Keeler and Dougherty were made in the last part of the game. Lowe's two-bagger, O'Leary's out, williams to Ganzel, and Barrett's infield single scored a Detroit man in the eighth inning. Powell worked so easily that he appeared to be careless, and when he gave the first man up in the ninth a base on balls the rooters were none too comfortable. Husky hitters were coming up, but three flies were all they did. The score:

Baseball Notes.

W.—No official records will be obtainable until after the playing season.

Children from the Hebrew Orphan Asylum made things interesting at American League Park yesterday. A fife and drum corps composed of tots little enough to go in a bat bag serenaded both teams, and the midget drum major under the big shako made a hit second only to Anderson's, when the latter made his three-bagger. Cricket Championship Hinges on Tomorrow's Game. Considerable interest has been aroused among local cricketers in the game which will be played at Staten Island to-morrow between the Livingston Field Club and Brooklyn. The game will decide the championship of the Metropolitan League and should prove a contest well worth witnessing. In view of the fact that a large crowd will be attracted to the game, the Livingston Field Club has decided to charge an admission fee of 25 cents, and turn the proceeds over to George Haywood, the professional ground man, as a benefit. The teams selected for the game are as follows:

Livingston—A. J. G. Cook (captain). C. P. Hurditch, C. H. Clarke, F. F. Kelly, C. H. E. Griffith, A. G. Laurie, R. W. R. Powell, K. A. Bray, W. F. Keenan, C. Dalton, T. D. Ellick,

Close Finishes in Events Sailed Off Sea Gate. Eleven yachts sailed a close and exciting race in the lower bay yesterday for special prizes offered by the Atlantic Yacht Club. It was the first of a series of four races given by the club in place of the annual cruise. The series includes an ocean race Fire Island and Cape May lightships, which begins to-morrow.

The course for the large classes was four-teen miles, from the start off the clubhouse at Sea Gate to and around Craven Shoal buoy and Buoy No. 8, one mile east of West Buoy light.
The small classes sailed seven miles, leaving stake boats off Ulmer Park, the Marine and Field Club and Fort Hamilton for their ing stake boats on timer Park, the Mainly and Field Club and Fort Hamilton for their turning marks.

It was a reach for large sloops to the first mark, a beat to the second mark and a run with spinnakers to starboard to the finish. J. B. O'Donohue's Redwing got away in the lead, with the Bagheera second, the Bobtail third and the Maydick last. At the end of the first round they were timed as follows; Maydick, 415:03; Redwing, 4:16:13; Bagheera, 4:22:42; Bobtail, 4:23:56.

The Maydick held her lead on the next round and finished 2 minutes 47 seconds ahead, winning by just four seconds from the Redwing In Class N Hendon Chub's Bagheera won from E. F. Luckenbach's Bobtail by 1 minute 41 seconds. J. B. Palmer's Naiad won in Class P from the Bonito by two seconds. The Smoke carried away her bobstay and retired.

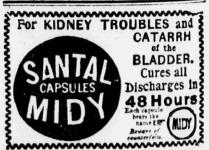

In Class Q A. Mackay's Ogeemah won from the Spots by 4 minutes 47 seconds.
